WASHINGTON, D. C.

TWO D.C. CAMPUSES

GW maintains two fully integrated campuses in Washington, D.C.
A free shuttle transports students regularly between our Foggy Bottom and Mount Vernon campuses, which are only 3 miles apart.

Our FOGGY BOTTOM CAMPUS is 20+ city blocks in the heart of D.C. with residence halls and many academic buildings. Blocks from the White House and the National Mall, you'll find an array of academic, professional, and social opportunities that are unmatched elsewhere.

Our MOUNT VERNON CAMPUS is 25 acres in the historic Berkley neighborhood of northwest D.C. With residence halls, classroom space, a library, and athletic fields and facilities, this beautiful campus offers a quieter space for academic exploration.

WHAT IS HISTORY WE MAKE

The George Washington University sits in the heart of the nation's capital, where the worlds of politics, science, business, engineering, media, and the arts converge. Our students have unparalleled opportunities to study and work alongside leaders in every discipline. Our vast network of internships, research, service, partners, and alumni make coming here life- and world-changing. Every day, our students experience moments that happen only at GW.

World-renowned chef, author, and humanitarian José Andrés

Our students take advantage of year-round, monumental internship opportunities at influential organizations, museums, research labs, and the nearly 20 Fortune 500 companies headquartered in the D.C.-area.

GW is the only university in the nation to hold its commencement on the National Mall, which has featured such speakers as President George H.W. Bush and First Lady Barbara Bush, former New York City mayor Michael Bloomberg, award-winning actress (and GW alumna) Kerry Washington, and Apple Inc. CEO Tim Cook.

ITY COMES BILITY.

Right in the middle of a city unlike any other, our students gain an education you simply cannot get anywhere else. All of Washington, D.C.—the culture and consequence—is truly your extended classroom. GW students emerge with not only a diploma, but also the distinction of experiencing what happens only at GW.
