TWO D.C. CAMPUSES

GW maintains two fully integrated campuses in Washington, D.C. A free shuttle transports students regularly between our Foggy Bottom and Mount Vernon campuses, which are only 3 miles apart.

Our FOGGY BOTTOM CAMPUS is 20+ city blocks in the heart of D.C. with residence halls and many academic buildings. Blocks from the White House and the National Mall, you’ll find an array of academic, professional, and social opportunities that are unmatched elsewhere.

Our MOUNT VERNON CAMPUS is 25 acres in the historic Berkley neighborhood of northwest D.C. With residence halls, classroom space, a library, and athletic fields and facilities, this beautiful campus offers a quieter space for academic exploration.
Over two-thirds of GW students participate in campus and community service projects. In 2021, the University recorded 654,708 hours of service from more than 5,000 members across the GW community. Learn more at serve.gwu.edu/service-hours.

GW is on the top 25 list of universities in the U.S. that have graduated the highest number of billion-dollar start-ups. Since 2010, GW’s New Venture Competition has awarded millions in both cash and in-kind prizes to entrepreneurial students working to solve world issues.

GW's location in the heart of the nation's capital provides students with the opportunity to learn directly from many of the world's top leaders, entrepreneurs and policymakers, such as chef, humanitarian and author José Andrés, HON '14.

Our community of distinguished and accomplished alumni, including Elana Meyers Taylor, B.S ’06, M.T.A. ‘11, HON ’18, the most decorated Black athlete in Winter Olympics history, is inspiring and embodies what it means to be a Revolutionary.

With more than 500 student organizations, 20 NCAA Division I athletic teams, numerous celebrated speakers and an impressive calendar of arts and cultural activities on campus and throughout the city, there is never a lack of things to do or get excited about at GW.
